

Rivertown

November, 2009

(L-R) Golf Tourney Vice Chair John T. White Jr., senior vice president, Structure Tone, Inc.; Judy Kydon, Executive Director of Saint Dominic's Home; Sister Joseph Mary Mahoney, president of Friends of Saint Dominic's, and Golf Tourney Committee Chairman Ronald J. Sylvestri, senior vice president, Hudson Valley Bank.

Saint Dominic's golf tourney raises $325,000

When it comes to golf there is no doubt that Ronald J. Sylvestri, John T. White Jr., David T. Meberg, and Hector A. May are game. But when the golf is for Saint Dominic's Home, they tee up a long drive of generosity and more.

The four are responsible for the success of the 17th Annual Friends of Saint Dominic's Golf Tourney, which took place at the Edgewood Country Club in River Vale, N.J.

Nearly 200 golfers representing area businesses, many in the building and construction trades in New York City, chipped in to raise more than $325,000 for the non-profit agency.

Under Executive Director Judy Kydon, the programs of Saint Dominic's Home, (www.stdominicshome.org) include foster boarding homes, adoption, special needs education and community-based services and residences for people with mental illness or developmental disabilities.

Headquartered in Blauvelt, Saint Dominic's serves 2,000 people and families in the Bronx, and Rockland, Westchester and Rockland counties.

The 17th Annual Friends of Saint Dominic's Golf Tourney Committee includes: Tourney Chairman Ronald J. Sylvestri, senior vice president, Hudson Valley Bank and Bronxville resident; Orangeburg resident and Tourney Vice Chair John T. White Jr., senior vice president, Structure Tone, Inc.; Huntington, L.I. resident and Tourney Vice Chair David T.

Meberg, president and CEO, Consolidated Carpet; Orangeburg resident and Tourney Rockland Co-Chair Hector A. May, president of Executive Compensation Planners, Inc; Blauvelt resident and Tourney Co-Chair Thomas G. Carley, senior vice president, Bank of America; Orangeburg resident Richard Nardella, account executive, Structure Tone, Inc;

Blauvelt resident Robert Nardella, director, Cushman & Wakefield; Wayne, N.J. resident William Scanlon, vice president, sales, Allran Electric Corp.; Wilton, Conn. resident Carlo Valente, vice president, A-Val Architectural Metal Corp., and Hoboken, N.J. resident Ray Burns, vice president, Wealth Management, Smith Barney, Inc.